

FAQ's

What exactly is this service?

This is a professionally guided, podcast-style interview capturing your story in your own words — a keepsake for you, your family, or your future self. Whether you're preparing for a wedding, welcoming a baby, or simply want to document a moment in time, this is your chance to be truly heard and remembered.

What's included in the process?

1. Prep Session: Once you reach out, we'll schedule a relaxed pre-interview call so I can get to know you, your story, and the tone you're envisioning. This helps create flow and comfort before we hit record.
2. Formal Interview: We'll schedule your interview at a time that works for you. It will be done virtually with professional-quality recording tools.
3. Editing & Delivery: Your episode will be professionally edited for clarity, warmth, and pacing. You'll receive a high-quality audio file on agreed upon date.

Can I request edits after the final version is delivered?

Yes! One round of light edits is included if necessary. If you'd like additional or more extensive edits, there will be an additional charge per hour of editing.

Do you offer rush delivery?

Yes. If you need your episode expedited and delivered within 72 hours, we offer rush editing for an additional charge.

Can the episode be published on Apple & Spotify?

Yes — if you'd like your interview to be released as a public podcast episode (for example, to air the week before your wedding), we can handle that. • Custom cover art • Episode title & description writing • Distribution to Apple, Spotify & all major platforms.

Can I keep the episode private?

Absolutely. If you'd prefer your episode to remain a private audio file shared only with friends or family, that's 100% up to you.

How much does it cost?

This is determined during our intake call. After we discuss your vision for the end product, you will receive a detailed proposal.

How do I book?

You can reach out via email or text us and we'll start by booking your prep session. From there, we'll guide you through the rest!
